

Talking soils and natural turf for public landscapes

Webinar: Wednesday September 15th 2021
11:30am - 1:30pm

The presenters will cover fundamental design, installation and care issues, with a focus on specifying for correct performance level and getting the right outcome for turf in public spaces. A Q&A session will follow their presentations.

Who will benefit:

Landscape Architects and Urban Designers; Landscape Works Specifiers and Contractors; Asset, Parks and Open Space Managers; anyone involved in the planning, design, specification, purchasing, installation or care of turf in public green space.

Knowledge Level:

New to industry; Seeking knowledge on basic soil and turf information; Wishing to be updated on newer standards; Soil science; Landscape management controls; climate resilience & adaptation.

Presenters:

Matt Roche

Australian Sports Turf Consultants

- Turf selection, installation and maintenance advice
- "Fit-for-Purpose", what does it mean
- Different turf install methods
- What is Plant Breeder's Rights (PBR)

Mick Battam

Ag Enviro Solutions

- Sources of suitable soil
- Amending soils
- How deep should the topsoil be
- Common mistakes made by designers
- When to ask for advice

Register & more info available at:

Event Contact:
Matthew Plunkett
info@turfnsw.com.au